

1. Altamirano Student Apartments: 2 and 4 bedroom single-gender apartments.

3. Baca Hall: Co-ed residence hall, 2 bedrooms and a shared bath, 24-hour quiet hours, no alcohol, no tobacco policy.

4. Brown Hall: Business and administrative offices, the office of the president and vice presidents.

5. Children's Center: Provides care for children of New Mexico Tech's students, staff, faculty and Socorro community members.

6. Cramer Hall: Computer Science, Psychology, Educational Outreach and Master's of Science for Teachers.

7. Desert Willow, a residence hall for single students and students with families. Each unit contains 2 bedrooms, 1 bath, a full kitchen and a living room.

8. Driscoll Hall: All-female residence with community bathrooms on each floor, and a community kitchen on the 2nd floor.

9. Fidel Center: Dining hall, coffee shop, bookstore, post office, game room, Center for Student Success, Registrar, Residential Life, Student Affairs, Cashier, Financial Aid, Advancement & Alumni Relations, Admission, and Counseling & Health Center.

10. Fitch Hall: Communication, Liberal Arts, and Social Sciences Department.

11. Gymnasium: 2 large gyms, weight room, cardio equipment, indoor climbing wall, racquetball and squash courts.

12. Headen Geology Center: Mineral Museum, publications store, labs and scientific reference collection.

13. Jones Annex: Biology and Civil and Environmental Engineering

14. Jones Hall: Materials Engineering.

15. Kelly Petroleum Building, Petroleum Recovery Research Center.

16. López Chemistry Building: Chemistry Department.

17. Macey Center: 600-seat auditorium, the Performing Arts Center and meeting rooms.

18. Mountain Springs Apartments: for single students, students with families and graduate students.

19. Mineral Science and Engineering Complex: Petroleum, Chemical and Mineral Engineering departments, and Earth & Environmental Sciences.

20. National Radio Astronomy Observatory: scientific, engineering, technical, computer and support staff for the VLA and the VLBA.

22. President's Hall: women's rooms on the upper floors, men's rooms on the lower level.

24. Skeen Library: contains over 600,000 books and documents.

25. Speare: Academic Center for Technology, Management Department.

26. South Hall: 2 bedroom, single-gender suites, with shared bathroom.

27. Student Activities Center: Auditorium, Campus Police

28. Swim Center: Open year-round; in winter the pool is covered with an inflatable bubble.

29. Athletic Field: Multi-sports use, including rugby, soccer and ultimate frisbee.

31. Torres Hall: fully-furnished double bedrooms, multiple community bathrooms on each floor. Study lounges available on every floor.

32. Weir Hall: Mathematics and Mechanical Engineering departments.

33. Wells Hall: Business and administrative offices.

34. West Campus:

Data Center, EMRTC, Etscorn Observatory, Facilities Management, Fine Arts Center,

18-hole golf course, Golf Pro Shop, "M" Mountain Grill. IRIS/PASSCAL,

35. West Hall: All-male residence hall.

36. Workman Center:

Offices for the Physics department, Electrical Engineering, and the Langmuir Laboratory for Atmospheric Research.

Gold Building: Home of Information Technology & Communication